Channel 4 opportunity

Random Acts are looking for young people (16 to 24) who would like the opportunity to showcase their work on Channel 4's online and broadcasting platforms. Random Acts are short films made by artists about artists, between 90 seconds and 3 minutes long, made by dancers, poets, visual artists, musicians, writers, comedians and filmmakers. No previous film-making experience necessary. Applications are now open and they want to ensure young people of Bradford, from all backgrounds are made aware of this fantastic opportunity. See Playlist from Year 1 of Random Acts North filmmakers. Contact Siobhan.Finnon@tynesidecinema.co.uk for details.

Public consultation

Bradford Council are holding a consultation for advice seekers (members of the public) on Wednesday, 25th January, 1.30pm at Margaret McMillan Towers, Bradford. Can you encourage clients to attend to let the Local Authority know what elements of the budget they feel passionate about. Advice Managers are encouraged to support this process - if you know a client who has a powerful case/story, who might be prepared to share it. Bus fares reimbursed. Contact: sandrag@bradfordcan.org.uk

Social work placements sought

Can your organisation be involved in inspiring, teaching and shaping the next generation of social workers? Bradford College is looking for part-time placements (lasting 70 days) for 2nd year social work students. Placements will be from January/February to May/June. Organisations taking students can claim £8 - £20 per day per student.

Bradford College is fortunate in being able to attract mature students with considerable life experience who are able to adapt well to work environments. For more information contact Lynrose Kirby, Placement Co-ordinator L.Kirby@bradfordcollege.ac.uk or call 01274 33311.
